SIX-A-SIDE COMPETITION

Entries:

13 entries in "E" Section
14 entries in "F" Section.

THE DRAW:

Each Section has been divided into two Divisions and there will be five rounds played in each Division to decide the respective Division winners, who will play off in the final match for each Section.

There will be a bye in three of the four Divisions so that each team entered will play at least four matches.

POINTS:

Points will be allotted for games played as follows:-

|      |   |          |      |   |          |
|------|---|----------|------|---|----------|
| Win  | - | 2 points | Draw | - | 1 point  |
| Loss | - | 0 "      | Bye  | - | 2 points |

Should two or more teams tie on points scored, the winner will be decided on percentages calculated as follows:-

|               |                   |
|---------------|-------------------|
| Goals For     | 100               |
| Goals Against | X 1 = Percentage. |

-2-

WINNERS:

In the knock-out rounds, if the scores are equal at end of time, the winner will be the team which scored the first goal. If no goals were scored, the result will be a draw.

In the finals, if the scores are equal at end of time, the teams will change ends, and the team scoring the first goal after resumption of play will be declared the winner.

GAMES TO START ON TIME:

In the event of a team not being ready to play within one minute of the announced starting time, the referee will bounce the ball in the centre and commence play. If the opposing team is still absent when one goal is scored, play shall cease and the team scoring such goal shall be credited with a win by one goal to nil.

REFEREES:

Each competing club shall supply a competent senior player to act as referee on an approximately "on-off" basis for alternate matches. As far as possible, referees will not be called upon to act in matches in which their own clubs are competing.

GOAL UMPIRES:

Clubs are requested to provide goal-umpires from amongst their older members and supporters. Four from each club would ensure that each umpire would be required for only a comparatively short period during the day.

RUNNERS:

Junior players not immediately required on the field should be asked to report at the commentator's table and assist in the collection of results after each match.
